

Standing Rules of the Presbytery of Scioto Valley
Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

Adopted November 21, 2000 and Amended September 16, 2003, November 15, 2005,
November 18, 2008, March 2, 2010, and June 15, 2010)

These Standing Rules, having been adopted by the action of the Presbytery of Scioto Valley at its stated meeting of November 21, 2000, and amended September 16, 2003, November 15, 2005, November 18, 2008, March 2, 2010, and June 15, 2010, shall be effective on June 15, 2010, and hereby replace and supersede any and all other standing rules of the Presbytery of Scioto Valley.

A. The Mission Statement of the Presbytery of Scioto Valley:

1. As members of the larger Body of Christ and the Presbytery of Scioto Valley, God calls us to live out the mission and ministry of Jesus Christ. We do this by building partnerships, communicating with and supporting congregations and leaders, and reaching out into the world with the love of Christ.

B. Authority

1. These Standing Rules are intended, and shall be interpreted, to facilitate the Presbytery's efforts to carry out its mission, consistent with the provisions of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), particularly Chapters 9 and 11 of the Form of Government, the Code of Regulations of the Presbytery, and the Bylaws of the Presbytery.

2. Each committee, including the Presbytery Council and the Board of Trustees, may create subcommittees or task forces as its needs demand.
 3. Each committee will set goals and will measure results for its activities to be consistent with the mission of the Presbytery.
 4. The Council may approve the formation of additional committees in the Presbytery, which may be made standing committees by action of the Presbytery.

G. Delegation:

1. The Committee on Ministry is delegated the authority to take all actions, between stated meetings of the Presbytery, that may be delegated to that committee under G-11.0502h of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (USA), provided that all actions taken are reported to the next stated meeting of the Presbytery.
2. The Board of Trustees is delegated all authority as provided for in the Code of Regulations of the Presbytery and the Bylaws of the Presbytery. The following additional authority is delegated:
 - a. With the concurrence of the New Church Development or Church Transformation Committee, as appropriate, to approve, between stated meetings of the Presbytery, requests from congregations to sell, lease, purchase or mortgage property as required by G-8.0500 of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (USA), provided that:
 - i. All actions taken under G-8.0500 shall state the reason action was necessary before a stated meeting of the Presbytery and
 - ii. No funds from the sale of property shall be disbursed until after the next stated meeting of the Presbytery.
3. The Moderator of the Presbytery is delegated the authority
 - a. To appoint installation commissions, investigating committees, and committees of counsel;
 - b. Upon approval of a call by the Committee on Ministry or the Presbytery, to appoint an installation commission.
 - c. Whenever circumstances require the appointment of an investigating committee or a committee of counsel, the Moderator of the Presbytery shall make such appointments and report them to the Stated Clerk, who shall announce the appointments at the next stated meeting of the Presbytery.

H. Policies

1. The Presbytery may from time to time adopt such policies as may be necessary to effectively and consistently carry out the Presbytery's constitutional responsibilities or ministry initiatives. Policies may be proposed by any entity of the Presbytery referenced in these standing rules.
2. Policies shall be adopted by a majority vote of presbyters present and voting at a properly noticed meeting subsequent to the meeting at which the proposed policy was presented for first reading.
 - a. The sponsoring entity may receive comment and make additions, deletions and corrections to the proposed policy between the first and second readings, provided that all substantive (non-editorial) changes are noted in the call to the second meeting.
 - b. Presbytery may approve amendments to a policy at the time of debate.
 - c. The sponsoring entity may withdraw a proposed policy prior to the second reading or postpone the second reading to the next stated meeting.
3. All policies, unless otherwise noted, will take effect upon Presbytery approval, and will remain in force until the Presbytery, by a majority vote, amends the policy, adopts a replacement policy, or rescinds the policy.
4. The Stated Clerk shall maintain an accurate compilation of all Presbytery policies. The Stated Clerk will annually review all policies in force at the time to ensure that they are in compliance with and are not contradictory to the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) or the Presbytery's Articles of Incorporation, Code of Regulations, Bylaws, Standing Rules or other adopted policies.
5. The Stated Clerk, upon receipt of changes to the Book of Order, shall review all policies for accuracy of constitutional citations. As long as the substance of the changes to the Book of Order does not change the substance or intent of the policies, the Stated Clerk will report the editorial changes to the Presbytery and make the changes to the policies as published. Changes of a substantive nature will require presentation to and approval by the Presbytery as provided above.

I. Miscellaneous

1. Review: The Presbytery shall appoint a committee to review the efficacy of the provisions of these Standing Rules not less than every three years.
2. These standing rules shall, to the extent possible, be interpreted to maintain consistency with the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), including any amendments thereto. To the extent these standing rules cannot be interpreted consistent with the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), including any amendments thereto, the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) shall control the proceedings of the Presbytery. Annually, the Stated Clerk shall report whether any amendment to the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) is inconsistent with these standing rules, and if so, to propose appropriate amendments to these Standing Rules to insure consistency between the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and these standing rules.

3. These standing rules shall, to the extent possible, be interpreted to maintain consistency with the Code of Regulations of the Presbytery, including any amendments thereto. To the extent these standing rules cannot be interpreted consistent with the Code of Regulations of the Presbytery, including any amendments thereto, the Code of Regulations shall control the proceedings of the Presbytery.
4. These standing rules shall, to the extent possible, be interpreted to maintain consistency with the Bylaws of the Presbytery, including any amendments thereto. To the extent these standing rules cannot be interpreted consistent with the bylaws, including any amendments thereto, the bylaws shall control the proceedings of the Presbytery.
5. Amendment:
 - a. These Standing Rules may be amended, subject to the bylaws of the Presbytery, the Code of Regulations of the Presbytery, the Charter of the Corporation, the laws of the state of Ohio and the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), by approval of the Presbytery at any stated or special meeting of the Presbytery by a majority vote of those present, provided that a full reading of the proposed changes or a distribution by any printed or electronic means of the same shall have been made in connection with the call of the meeting.
 - b. These Standing Rules may not be amended contrary to or so as to not include the provisions of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).
