

CERTIFIED RULING ELDER TRAINING
Presbytery of Scioto Valley
GUIDELINES FOR LIAISONS
(Approved February 28, 2019)

Liaisons to the students in the Certified Ruling Elder (CRE) training experience of the Presbytery of Scioto Valley are members of the Certified Ruling Elder Task Team assigned to each candidate. The relationship is two way in that the student may contact his/her liaison at any time and the liaison should contact the student at least twice each year.

Students may contact their liaisons at any time during their training.

- Liaisons will answer any questions or make proper referrals. Any necessary return calls should be made as promptly as possible.
- Liaisons will remind the student of upcoming training events, and offer any necessary guidance throughout the training period.
- Liaisons will ask if the mentor/student relationship is satisfactory.
- Liaisons will inform students of any actions/changes taken by the Task Team which might affect his/her progress.
